

2 Sisters' Salsa hits the shelves in Albertson's, Tom Thumb & Randalls Stores

2 Sisters' Salsa is proud to announce that it recently made its way onto the shelves of over 150 new stores. Albertsons Southern division which includes Randalls, Tom Thumb and Albertsons banners will now carry 3 of its salsa flavors; Jalapeño, Fiesta and Original. The products will be distributed through the KeHe warehouse.

The salsa company, which started in 2015, already has a place on the shelves in a host of several large supermarkets and boutique grocery stores across the country. Most recently, they are adding a variety of heavy-hitting chains to their distribution list – Walmart, Winn Dixie, Brookshire Brothers, United Supermarkets, Super 1 Foods, Food Depot and Rouses Markets to name a few. The company was designed with these type of large-scale expansions in mind. In fact, it was built for them, literally.

“The facility where we produce our product was built for the present and the future,” explains CEO/President Patrick Deshotels. “We can meet current demand, but we can also expand further in the years to come.”

2 Sisters' Salsa takes everyone's favorite snack and elevates it with the addition of a savory blend of Cajun spices. The salsa, available in Original, Fiesta, Jalapeno, Honey and now new Verde, was handcrafted in the heart of Louisiana from authentic Cajun recipes.
